Regional Grant Scheme

Royal Society of Biology

Grants of up to £500 are available to run local events during Biology Week 2018

Do you have an idea for a Biology Week event? Do you need some extra funds to help make it a success?

Individual RSB members, worldwide, can apply directly for up to £500 for events taking place from 6th to 14th October 2018.

The Royal Society of Biology is looking to fund a wide range of events and activities, supporting both those who are experienced in event delivery, people hoping to organise their first event, and everyone in between.

Deadline: 30 April 2018
